

INVITATION

CREATIVE ARTS VISITING ARTIST TALK

Nike Savvas – Innovation in Contemporary Art Practice

Join us for an Artist Talk event hosted by the Creative Arts Department for Year 9–12 Visual Art, Graphics and Photography students.

BE YOURSELF.

CGGS.ACT.EDU.AU

CREATIVE ARTS VISITING ARTIST TALK

DATE: Tuesday, 15 March 2016

TIME: 9.10am – 10.50am

VENUE: Multimedia theatre

SPEAKER BIO

Visiting artist and past student, Nike Savvas (1981) is a leading contemporary artist who works across the art forms of sculpture, installation, kinetic and light-based media. Savvas' exhibiting career has developed internationally in tandem with a continued presence in Australia. She has been involved in over 200 solo and group exhibitions, and featured in numerous publications. Savvas has completed major commissions, including the AGNSW (2014), Perth International Airport (2015), and the Macquarie Group International Headquarters (2014). She has been included in group exhibitions in Europe, Australasia, the United States and Asia: notably Festival of Love Southbank Centre London 2015, Paradigm Store (2014) Howick Place London, and Optical Mix (2014) ACCA Melbourne. Savvas is the recipient of many awards and prizes and her work is held in Australian and international collections.

Front image: Edition C-Type print by Nike Savvas of art work titled Atomic: Full of love, Full of Wonder shown at the AGNSW in 2006
Polystyrene balls, paint, nylon wire, electric fans that gyrate the balls.
Dimensions variable (in photo 32m x 15m)