Dear Parents and Guardians

We were recently advised by Canberra Grammar School that they have made the decision to change to a co-educational institution from 2016. You may have read about this today, 27 October.

Canberra Girls Grammar School (CGGS) is a thriving and welcoming community. Our enrolments are strong and increasing; as you know we are opening an extra Year 7 class in 2016 due to demand. We are delighted that so many families wish to join us. Be assured that CGGS is not planning any major change of culture.

Next year the School will celebrate its 90th Birthday. CGGS is the oldest independent school in Canberra and we are proud of both our long tradition and our forward-thinking school board and teaching and support staff. Further, CGGS has a strong financial base and we are pleased to have a consistent and healthy building program to improve our facilities.

We remain focused on providing our students with not just equal opportunity but every opportunity. It is a joy to work with your daughters every day and encourage them to achieve their best.

Please do contact myself (anne.coutts@cggs.act.edu.au), Peter Milligan (peter.milligan@cggs.act.edu.au) or Heather Ablett (heather.ablett@cggs.act.edu.au) if you would like to talk to us or ask any questions.

Kind regards

Anne Coutts
