CGGS welcomes new Chaplain
By Miss Ellena Papas — 1 month ago in General Notices, Staff Communication
Canberra Girls Grammar School (CGGS) warmly welcomes Father Christopher Lewis as the School's new Chaplain. He will join CGGS at the start of Term 4, as soon as he completes his quarantine in the ACT.

Student wellbeing holiday tips
By Miss Ellena Papas — 1 month ago in General Notices, Community | 1 attachments
It was a pleasure to welcome so many of our CGGS parents to our Term 3 Parent seminar with Dr Michael Carr-Gregg. His advice about building resilience and how to support children at this time was invaluable.

Wonder and meaning
By Miss Ellena Papas — 1 month ago in General Notices, Community, Senior School, Junior School, Staff Communication
In the last eNews I wrote about the need to ensure our children's basic needs are met and that their wellbeing is attended to before meaningful learning can happen – before we Bloom we must Maslow.

From the Principal - The challenge is clear
By Mr Stewart Henderson — 2 months ago in General Notices, Community, Senior School, Junior School, Co-curricular, Staff Communication
Girls' Pledge to Canberra CGGS students of The House, are seeking support and make a pledge to Canberra to provide funds for a monument to our first female prime minister, Julia Gillard.
