

The House

Women in Politics and Government

The House is a mergence of subject-based learning, experiential learning beyond the classroom and engagement beyond the school gates.

The success indicator will be when the name The House: Women in Politics and Government falls away and it is simply known as The House: Politics and Government.